TARIFF CAUSES LIVELY DEBATE

The Reciprocity Convention in a Wrangle.

J. A. KASSON POLITELY ASSAILED.

Protectionists Resent His Course in the Negotiation of the French Treaty-A Personal Tilt on the Floor.

High protectionists and modificationists fought zealously over the tariff ball before the National Reciprocity Convention noon neither side had kicked goal. The weight of numbers, if not of argument, was, however, with the protectionists. The latter went in for a desperate assault couched in polite language upon John A Kasson, the Government's Reciprocity Treaty Commissioner. Mr. Kasson's offence, according to a number of speakers was the negotiation of the French Reci

ODDITHEORY ON FOUNDLING MYSTERY

The Explanation Offered by Police Captain Delaney, of New Substantiated by One Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 .- Police Captain able conclusion in reference to the mystery of the many foundlings that have recently been discovered in doorways in the neighborhood of Second Avenue and Fortieth Street. He thinks they were stolen by a woman who had no other object than to abandon them later, notwithstanding that such unreasonable malignity is hard to be-

Proved in One fustance That such was the only object in at least one instance has been proven. Ern est Le Fevre, of No. 334 East Thirtyand the death rate fell from 19 per 1,000 fourth Street today recovered his baby of the population to 15.47. The baby was found by the police on the doorstep at No. 754 Second Avenue. A VERDICT OF MURDER.

Result of the Coroner's Inquest in the Richmond Tragedy. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 20 .- The coroner's jury that investigated the facts in onnection with the recent mysterious killing of John W. Scott, the Richmond society man, clubman, and huntsman, and nember of the brokerage firm of Scott & Stringfellow, last evening returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased was aurdered by some unknown person.

A number of witnesses were summoned nothing further than the finding of Scott's almost lifeless body on the steps of the of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Poomac Railroad, was developed. Scott was struck on the head with some blunt nstrument after leaving the Common wealth Club early on the morning of November 14. He stumbled into the yard of Major Myers and fell upon his front steps. The theory of robbery has been advanced and it has been reported that the assault was prompted by jealousy, but the testi-mony did not disclose whether either was the cause of Scott's death.

CRUSHED BY SENATOR PLATT. Short-Lived Opposition to Mr. Morris as County Committee President.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 .- According to Reiblican politicians who are in a position know, Robert C. Morris is to be elected resident of the Republican County Comlittee when the committee is reorganized

The fact has just leaked out that a few men in and out of the county organization made some plans directly after the election for a change of officers. Several istrict leaders were approached and asked if they would support another man for resident of the committee in opposition the president was stated.

Republicans who are well informed as to what is going on in the party, say that news of the movement against President Morris reached Senator Platt, and that he promptly madé it known that he was emphatically opposed to any such action. He told all the leaders who talked with him, it is said, that Mr. Morris had given the party splendid service and should be re-elected without opposition. The attitude of Senator Platt seems to have put All Republicans agree that in the city ampaign no man worked harder than ampaign no man worked harder than President Morris. It is asserted that he has greatly strengthened the Republican rganization in the county. His re-elec-
